Report on Online Quiz (Sports) Competition

The Sports Committee of Narayana College of Nursing organized an Online Quiz Competition focused on sports on March 12, 2021, from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM. This event aimed to enhance students' knowledge of sports while promoting friendly competition in a virtual format, especially in light of the ongoing pandemic.

Participants were invited to register their names with the Sports Committee by March 11, 2021. The event garnered considerable interest, attracting students from various disciplines who were eager to showcase their knowledge of sports trivia, rules, and famous athletes. The online format allowed participants to engage comfortably from their homes while fostering a competitive spirit.

On the day of the quiz, participants logged into the designated online platform, where the event was conducted smoothly. The quiz consisted of multiple-choice questions covering a wide range of topics related to sports, including history, rules, records, and notable achievements in various sports disciplines.

The quizmaster introduced the event, outlining the rules and structure of the competition. Participants were given a set amount of time to answer each question, and their responses were recorded automatically through the online system, ensuring a fair and efficient scoring process. The atmosphere was filled with excitement as participants raced against the clock to answer questions correctly.

As the quiz progressed, participants demonstrated their knowledge and enthusiasm for sports, with some showcasing impressive quick-thinking abilities. The event concluded with a thrilling final round, where the top scorers competed for the title of the champion.

At the end of the quiz, the results were announced, and prizes were awarded to the winners. E-certificates were distributed to all participants, with special recognition given to the top performers. This acknowledgment not only celebrated their achievements but also motivated participants to continue exploring their interest in sports.

Report on Skipping Competition

The Sports Committee of Narayana College of Nursing organized a Skipping Competition on October 12, 2019, from 8:00 AM to 6:00 PM. This event aimed to promote physical fitness, coordination, and endurance among students through the engaging activity of skipping.

Participants were invited to register their names with the Sports Committee by October 11, 2019. The competition attracted a considerable number of enthusiastic students, eager to showcase their skills and techniques in this dynamic and fun activity. The atmosphere on the day of the event was filled with excitement and anticipation as competitors gathered to prepare for the competition.

On the day of the event, the venue was set up with ample space for participants to perform their skipping routines. The competition featured different formats, including individual skipping challenges and relay races, ensuring a variety of engaging activities for participants. Faculty members and volunteers ensured that the competition ran smoothly, enforcing rules and maintaining safety standards.

The competition began with a demonstration of basic skipping techniques, followed by individual performances. Participants showcased their skills, including speed, rhythm, and creativity in their routines. The crowd cheered enthusiastically, creating an encouraging environment for all competitors. Each participant had the opportunity to display their agility and endurance, with some impressively performing advanced skipping tricks.

As the event progressed, participants competed in relay races, fostering teamwork and collaboration among teams. The competitive spirit intensified as students raced against each other, aiming to achieve the best times while demonstrating their skipping prowess.

At the conclusion of the competition, prizes and certificates were awarded to the winners and outstanding performers, recognizing their efforts and achievements during the event. This acknowledgment not only honored their hard work but also encouraged continued participation in physical activities.

Report on Mehandi Competition

Date of Event: June 8, 2019

Time: 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Venue: 3rd Floor Auditorium, Narayana College of Nursing

The Cultural Committee of Narayana College of Nursing organized a Mehandi Competition on June 8, 2019, creating an engaging platform for students to showcase their artistic talents. The competition, held on the 3rd floor from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM, drew a significant number of participants who registered by June 7, 2019. This event aimed to promote cultural heritage while encouraging students to explore their creativity through Mehandi art.

The judging criteria focused on creativity, intricacy of design, neatness, and the integration of traditional motifs. Faculty members with cultural and artistic expertise formed the judging panel, ensuring a fair and comprehensive evaluation of each design. The participants presented a wide array of designs, from floral patterns to complex geometric forms, each adding its unique contribution to the event's vibrant atmosphere.

At the end of the competition, the Cultural Committee recognized the top three participants with prizes and certificates. The winners were applauded for their exceptional artistry and commitment to the art of Mehandi. This successful event was a testament to the Cultural Committee's dedication to promoting artistic and cultural expression among students, offering a valuable opportunity for participants to celebrate and connect with traditional art forms.

Report on Mime Competition

Date of Event: June 29, 2019

Time: 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Venue: 3rd Floor Auditorium, Narayana College of Nursing

The Cultural Committee of Narayana College of Nursing organized an engaging Mime Competition on June 29, 2019, held in the 3rd floor auditorium from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM. This competition encouraged students to showcase their acting skills and creativity in non-verbal storytelling, allowing participants to explore expression through body language and gestures.

Participants registered by June 28 and prepared for an evening of silent but powerful performances. Each act was assessed by a panel of faculty members, who judged based on criteria such as creativity, emotional expression, body language, and clarity of storyline. The competition featured a variety of themes, with students tackling diverse topics through mime, from social issues to humorous skits, each captivating the audience and panel alike.

At the end of the performances, prizes and certificates were awarded to the top three winners, recognizing their exceptional skills in conveying emotions and narratives without words. The event concluded with enthusiastic applause from students and faculty, celebrating the winners and all participants for their dedication and artistic expression. The Mime Competition highlighted the Cultural Committee's commitment to nurturing students' performance abilities and provided a platform for creative, non-verbal communication, enriching the college's cultural program.

Report on Pencil Drawing Competition

Date of Event: July 20, 2019

Time: 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Venue: 3rd Floor Auditorium, Narayana College of Nursing

On July 20, 2019, the Cultural Committee of Narayana College of Nursing organized an inspiring Pencil Drawing Competition in the 3rd floor auditorium from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM. The competition provided students with a unique opportunity to showcase their artistic talent and precision in pencil drawing, fostering an environment of creativity and self-expression. Interested students registered by July 19 to participate in this competitive artistic event.

The judging panel, composed of faculty members with a background in visual arts, evaluated the drawings based on creativity, detail, shading techniques, and overall composition. Participants displayed a remarkable array of pencil drawings, each piece highlighting their skill in capturing detail, emotion, and depth through pencil work. The atmosphere was filled with enthusiasm as each artist brought forward their interpretation and technique.

At the end of the competition, prizes and certificates were awarded to the top three participants for their exceptional artistry and dedication. The event concluded with applause from students and faculty, celebrating the winners and all participants for their hard work and artistic contributions. The Pencil Drawing Competition not only showcased the students' talents but also reflected the Cultural Committee's commitment to encouraging artistic pursuits, adding another memorable event to the college's cultural calendar.

Report on Essay Writing Competition

Date of Event: August 3, 2019

Time: 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Venue: 3rd Floor Auditorium, Narayana College of Nursing

On August 3, 2019, the Cultural Committee of Narayana College of Nursing organized an Essay Writing Competition, held from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM in the 3rd floor auditorium. This competition provided students with an opportunity to showcase their writing skills, critical thinking, and creativity in essay composition. Interested participants registered by August 2 to take part in this event, which encouraged thoughtful expression and intellectual engagement.

The panel of judges, comprising faculty members with expertise in language and literature, assessed the essays on originality, coherence, relevance to the theme, and language proficiency. Participants chose from a range of thought-provoking topics, each essay reflecting a unique perspective and writing style. The auditorium buzzed with a spirit of intellectual exchange as students poured their thoughts onto paper, exploring and articulating diverse viewpoints.

Following careful evaluation, prizes and certificates were awarded to the top three participants for their outstanding writing skills and insight. The event concluded with enthusiastic applause from students and faculty, celebrating both the winners and all participants for their dedication and efforts. The Cultural Committee's organization of the Essay Writing Competition demonstrated its commitment to fostering literary talent and intellectual growth, adding another valuable event to the college's cultural and educational initiatives.

Report on Flower Design Competition

Date of Event: November 2, 2019

Time: 5:00 PM - 6:00 PM

Venue: 3rd Floor Auditorium, Narayana College of Nursing

The Cultural Committee of Narayana College of Nursing organized a captivating Flower Design Competition on November 2, 2019, from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM in the 3rd floor auditorium. This competition aimed to celebrate creativity and artistic expression through the art of floral arrangement, encouraging students to explore their design skills and aesthetics.

Participants were invited to register for the event by November 1, showcasing their enthusiasm and commitment to floral artistry. The competition featured a diverse array of flower designs, with students utilizing various types of flowers, colors, and arrangement techniques to create visually stunning displays. Each participant brought their unique style and creativity, transforming the auditorium into a vibrant and fragrant space.

The judging panel, composed of faculty members with expertise in arts and design, evaluated the entries based on several criteria: creativity, color coordination, technical skill, and overall presentation. The quality of the designs was exceptional, reflecting the hard work and dedication of all participants.

At the conclusion of the competition, prizes and certificates were awarded to the top three winners, acknowledging their outstanding talent and creativity in floral design. The event culminated in a round of applause from faculty and fellow students, celebrating the achievements of the winners and the efforts of all participants.

The Flower Design Competition, organized by the Cultural Committee, not only provided a platform for students to express their artistic talents but also fostered a sense of community and appreciation for the beauty of floral arrangements. This event added another enriching experience to the cultural activities at Narayana College of Nursing, reinforcing the committee's commitment to promoting creativity and artistic endeavors among students.
